Tuesday, October 16, 2012

“Genetic and Psychosocial Predictors of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, Functional Impairment, and Suicidal Ideation in War Veterans”

Learning Objectives: 1) Participants will learn about post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and its relevance to active duty soldiers and veterans. 2) Participants will learn about the contributions of genetics and psychosocial risk factors for PTSD. 3) Participants will learn how these interactions also impact functional impairment and suicidal ideation.

Eric Meyer, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Texas A & M Health Science Center College of Medicine, Temple, TX

Tuesday, October 23, 2012

“A Revolution in Medicine: Proactive P4 Medicine – Predictive, Preventive, Personalized and Participatory”

Learning Objectives: 1) Participants will be able to explain the P4 medicine approach to transforming healthcare. 2) Participants will be able to learn about systems biology and a systematic approach to health and disease. 3) Participants will understand how P4 medicine, as the clinical face of systems medicine, can quantify wellness and demystify disease.

Leroy Hood, M.D., Ph.D., President and Co-Founder, Institute for Systems Biology, Seattle, Washington.

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.